Detaljer:

Es Moli den Bou is of great interest to lovers of historical architecture and Mallorcan craftsmanship as the mills in Mallorca are a symbol of the sunshine island. Those who own one also own a piece of Mallorcan history and tradition.

This historic mill is situated in the heart of San Lorenzo and offers various individual possibilities, for example as a commercial property (restaurant or small hotel with 8 bedrooms), or a spacious and tasteful domicile.

During recent years its living space of 569 sqm was home to a Michelin-starred restaurant but the building is one of the largest grain mills on the island and has the potential for other uses. The village of San Llorenç de Cardassar in the east of Mallorca is only 15 minutes from Manacor, and close by there are 4 golf courses.

Its tasteful restoration was lovingly carried out using traditional materials and paying great attention to Mallorcan details. Some of the materials used were the natural sandstone Mares, marble, and handmade terracotta floors, although in the main vaults underfloor heating was also installed.

In the entrance area there is a tower, sanitary facilities, and domed vaults which will surely excite wine lovers. A staircase leads up to the first floor with its various guest rooms, a kitchen, and a bar area. Another winding staircase accesses the roof terrace with wonderful panoramic views, which was refurbished in 2016.

In front of the building there is a very beautifully laid out terrace and at the rear ample car-parking spaces can be found.
