Läge & omgivningar:

The small, authentic village of Pina with less than 400 inhabitants is part of the municipality of Algaida and belongs to the central area of the island of Mallorca-(pla). Amongst its places of interest is the parish church Sant Cosme i Sant Damia, the abbey and the well of Pina. The best-known landmark in this area is the 'Table-mountain of Randa'.

The renewal of the infrastructure around the village has meant that the capital Palma has come 'closer', and has made this tranquil village an ideal starting point for trips to Palma for shopping or work without losing its idyllic way of life.
